Why invest in the MONETIKA Investment fund?

an investment alternative to savings accounts

predictable returns

minimal risk

money always at hand

no restrictions on deposit amount advantageous conditions for everyone

Goal of the investment fund

The objective of the fund is to achieve a return corresponding to the CNB 2-week repo rate, less the fund's estimated running costs of 0.7%.

Who is the MONETIKA Investment fund intended for?

- Small savers and large investors who want to achieve attractive returns with low risk and high liquidity. Large investors can use the investment share class (from CZK 10 million).
- Conservative clients who are averse to high risk and have been accustomed to growing their savings through savings accounts or term deposits.
- All investors seeking a short-term, highly liquid component for their investment portfolio.

Investment strategy

MONETIKA always selects the most advantageous instruments on the money market at any given time, delivering a combination of attractive returns and safety, so that the fund acts as an “investment wallet” for both companies and individuals. The current portfolio is composed of repo operations and bank deposits.

The fund uses the following investment instruments to grow invested funds:

- 2-week repo operations
- Bank deposits

When is the MONETIKA Investment Fund useful?

- When you need to build a short-term reserve ahead of a major planned expense, such as a property purchase.
- When you need to park money temporarily in a flexible way.
- When you manage finances for a homeowner association, municipality or company and are looking for a simple, flexible solution for growing available funds.
- When you want the ability to move money quickly into other INVESTIKA investment funds as opportunities arise.

The INVESTIKA family

The MONETIKA investment fund is part of the INVESTIKA family and serves as a stable tool for the efficient management of available funds. Within a portfolio, it fulfils the role of an “investment wallet” - combining the aim of generating returns with high liquidity and easy access to money.

- “Investment” wallet - a product also suitable for short-term reserves
- Available to any investor (individuals, companies, municipalities, homeowner associations, etc.)
- Money always at hand (usually available within 3 business days)
- Mobility - easy transfer to all funds under our management in the same currency (standing order or one-off)
- Option to receive regular annuity payments
- Paperless administration
- Available to individuals, homeowner associations and companies
